GABRIELLE M. GOMOZIAS, ESQ.

Associate

Gabrielle Gomozias is an associate attorney at Pettit Kohn Ingrassia Lutz & Dolin's San Diego office, where she focuses her practice on employment and labor matters.

Gabrielle earned her Juris Doctor from the California Western School of Law. She served as an Associate Editor of the California Western Law Review, where she authored the comment "Contracting for Children: Frozen Embryo Disposition Through the Lens of Assent" (December 2025). While in law school, Gabrielle gained valuable experience working in a variety of legal settings, including the San Diego County District Attorney's Office, and the U.S. Attorney's Office, Civil Division, for the Southern District of California.

Before attending law school, Gabrielle worked as a paralegal for a family law firm in San Diego.

Gabrielle graduated magna cum laude from the University of San Diego earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology with departmental honors, along with minors in English and Changemaking. During her time at the University of San Diego, she worked as a writing tutor and participated in the university's study abroad program in Rome, Italy.

Outside of her legal practice, Gabrielle enjoys planning future travels to continue to see the world and spending time with her french bulldog, Billie.
