

HANGING UP YOUR OWN SHINGLE?

ADVICE ON GOING SOLO & TIPS ON AVOIDING LEGAL MALPRACTICE

Are you a law student, recent law school graduate or new attorney and are you thinking about starting your own solo law practice? If so, then you should attend our FREE panel discussion focused on providing advice and insight into the world of a solo practitioner along with tips on professional liability.

The panel speakers include:

Christopher Macaraeg, Esq., solo practitioner that started his immigration firm in 2002.

Doreen Erenea, Esq., a solo practitioner that started her estate planning firm in 2001.

Valerie Garcia Hong, Esq., an attorney with Pettit Kohn Ingrassia & Lutz PC who handles professional liability for lawyers.

Moderated by Ariel Javier, Esq., a solo practitioner that started his tax firm in 2009.

Wed, March 28, 2012 at 6:15 p.m.

Thomas Jefferson School of Law

1155 Island Avenue, Room 325

*Hosted Light Appetizers and Refreshments
Send your RSVP to falsd1@gmail.com*

The event is sponsored by Filipino American Lawyers of San Diego, Pan Asian Lawyers of San Diego, and the following TJS� Student Bar Associations: Asian Pacific American Law Students Association, South Asian Law Students Association and Tax Law Society.

PALSD

