NICOLE F. DAVIDOV, ESQ. Associate

Nicole F. Davidov is a trial attorney representing both plaintiffs and defendants primarily in premises liability, products liability, transportation, and other complex personal injury matters. She secures favorable settlements in high-exposure cases that often involve catastrophic injuries, including traumatic brain and spinal cord injuries. Within her first five years of practice, Nicole solo-tried a multimillion-dollar case to verdict on behalf of a Fortune 50 defendant.

In her plaintiff practice, Nicole represents those who have suffered serious injuries or lost loved ones. She is deeply passionate about helping her clients as they navigate their hardest moments and is committed to genuinely being in their corner. Nicole's experience on both sides of the "v." provides a unique perspective that shapes her approach to every case and ensures her clients are well-informed and guided toward the best possible outcome. Whatever the case demands, Nicole is relentless and leaves no stone unturned to deliver what her clients deserve.

Born and raised in West Hollywood, Nicole earned her B.A. in Political Science, magna cum laude, from San Diego State University, and her J.D., cum laude, from the University of San Diego School of Law, where she served on the San Diego Law Review and earned CALI Awards in Legal Research and Writing and Labor Law for achieving the highest grade in the class. Outside of work, Nicole is likely to be found at a live show, on a plane, or anywhere in between with family and friends.
